To Whom it May Concern:

It is with pleasure that I write this letter of highest recommendation for Mr. David Curtis, as a person and as a teacher of Tibetan language.

It has been my privilege to know Mr. Curtis for quite some time and to be able to attest to his high character. I have also had the opportunity to study Tibetan with him and have great respect for his capacity for making a difficult subject both clear and pleasant.

It seems to me that he is one of those special people who was born to be a teacher, someone with the patience, enthusiasm and knowledge that inspires joy in learning.

Please feel free to contact me at any time.

With all best regards,

Terry Sullivan
